

WORD SEARCH ANSWERS

What's the fastest shark in the world?

Shortfin mako

What fish completed the largest trans-Pacific migration ever recorded?

Whale shark

What's the term used to describe species that look the same but are genetically different?

Cryptic speciation

How many millions of sharks are killed each year for their fins?

One hundred

What kind of shark can walk on land?

Epaulette

What species of elasmobranch has been observed to migrate in large schools, up to 10,000 at a time?

Cownose ray

What non-lethal sampling method can be used to study distributions of rare elasmobranchs?

Edna

What percentage of elasmobranchs are threatened with extinction?

Twenty five

What type of animal are elasmobranchs?

Fish

What is the place called where juvenile sharks undergo growth and development?

Nursery area

How many did you get right? Let us know- Tweet your score to @TheRayLady with #SharkTalesCrossword!